

CANDIDATES.

RESPECTFULLY announce myself a candidate for the office of Collector of Taxes for the Northern District, subject to the action of the conservative primary election.

ap 8-10
GEO. H. MARKELL.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA.—At the request of some of my friends and fellow citizens, I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election to the position of Commonwealth's Attorney of the city of Alexandria. This announcement is made subject to the action of a nominating convention or primary election of the conservative party. If I am re-elected to the office I shall devote my time, energy and ability to the discharge of the legitimate duties pertaining to it.

JOHN M. JOHNSON.

I ANNOUNCE myself a candidate for the office of City Sergeant, subject to the decision of the primary election, and respectfully request the support of my fellow citizens.

mh 30-10
U. M. MONROE.

TO THE PEOPLE OF ALEXANDRIA CITY.—I take this method of announcing myself a candidate for re-election to the office of City Sergeant. Two years ago you appointed me to fill this place in a manner so flattering to myself that I feel now, and did then, that my best efforts could never discharge the obligations under which you have placed me. For that manifestation of your confidence and regard, I have labored to fulfill the duties of the office so that no one should regret the selection you then made, and I hope to have done so acceptably to all. If I have met your approval in the past and should receive your endorsement again I can only pledge a continuance of the same official conduct in the future. I believe I have discharged my duties to the satisfaction of the court, the aldermen, the jury, and others having business relations with the courts as well as the public, and in asking your renewed support I am confident that no dereliction can be charged against me. I have always endeavored to act fairly, to make no distinction, to do no injustice to any one, and to be an impartial public officer. I, therefore, as your undivided supporter, in the approaching election, and if it should be your pleasure to elect me, it will be mine always to faithfully subserve your trust interests.

Very truly your obedient servant.
mh 29-10
R. T. LUCAS.

CLERK OF THE MARKET.—I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the position of Clerk of the Market, subject to the conservative primary election.

mh 28-10
H. B. WHITTINGTON.

TO THE CONSERVATIVE VOTERS OF ALEXANDRIA.—Having been solicited by a number of friends and fellow citizens, I take this method of announcing myself as a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Police. I take this method of announcing myself as a candidate for a conservative and to my fidelity to the party and its usages, both of which I still adhere, and to the support of the conservative voters of this city at the coming primary election, pledging myself to abide by the result. Should it be your pleasure to elect me, I will devote my best energies to the discharge of the duties of the office.

JAMES P. COLEMAN.

IN RESPONSE TO A PARAGRAPH IN the Gazette asking the use of my name as a candidate for election as Commonwealth's Attorney, I would say that the office in question would be a most acceptable one to me. I hereby announce myself as a candidate for that position, subject to the decision of the primary election, and earnestly ask my friends for their support.

mh 16-10
C. F. MARKELL.

RESPECTFULLY ANNOUNCE MYSELF a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney. This announcement is made subject to the action of the primary election.

AUCTION SALES.

By F. A. Kerby, Auctioneer.
(No. 55 King street, Alexandria, Va.)
BY VIRTUE OF DECREES OF THE
Circuit Court of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, rendered at the November term, 1873, and the November term, 1877, in the chancery suit of Fairfax against Thornton and others, the undersigned, commissioners by said court thereto authorized, will proceed, on SATURDAY, the 16th day of June, 1878, at 12 o'clock P. M., to sell by public auction, in front of the Market Building, on Royal street, in the said city of Alexandria, Va., a TRACT OF LAND, in Fairfax county, Virginia, containing all thousand seven hundred and fifty-four (754) acres, in the bill and proceedings mentioned, being the residue of the original purchase by Thornton from Fairfax remaining unsold. The Washington and Ohio Railroad is located through the tract. A plat of the property will be exhibited at the time and place of sale, and the same office in lots or as a whole, as may prove to the interest of all parties concerned.

Terms of Sale: Ten thousand dollars cash, and the residue of the purchase money to be payable in equal installments at one, two and three years, respectively, with interest from day of sale, to be evidenced and secured by security, the commissioners to retain the title to said land until the purchaser shall have paid all of the purchase money. Conveyancing at the cost of the purchaser.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF THE ADAMANTINE BRICK COMPANY'S WORKS AND PROPERTY, ALEXANDRIA, VA.
Under the authority of a deed of trust, bearing date of December 2, 1876, made by the "The Adamantine Brick Company, an incorporated company, duly chartered by an order of the Circuit Court for Alexandria county, Va., which deed is of record in the land records of said county, the subscribers, as trustees hereby certify, that on THURSDAY, the 25th day of April, 1878, at 12 o'clock P. M., at the works of said company at Waterloo station, on the Alexandria and Washington Railroad, in said county, a certain tract of land in said county, containing thirty-two (32) acres, three (3) rods and eighteen (18) inches, more or less, known as the "Waterloo" farm, and described according to a survey and map attached to said deed, made by William Forsyth, December 1, 1876, as follows, viz:—

Beginning at the intersection of the east line of the Washington and Alexandria Turnpike road with the land of Lieutenant Hunter, and running thence east one hundred and four (104) feet, thence north six and a quarter (6 1/4) degrees, east sixteen hundred and forty-nine (1649) feet, thence south seventy-six and one half (76 1/2) degrees, west one hundred and four and thirty-nine (104 39) feet, thence south one hundred and thirty-four (134) feet, thence east eight hundred and thirty-four (834) degrees, west eight hundred and sixteen (816) feet, thence south one hundred and thirty-four (134) degrees, west eight hundred and fifty (850) feet to the place of beginning, subject to and in accordance with a reserved right of way through the above described property sixty-six feet in width, on such lines as the parties conveying said land to said company may elect in the line to be located in such a manner as not to interfere with the operations of the said company to be carried on upon said property, together with all the buildings and improvements erected on said land, and the tools, machinery and outfit used by said company in carrying on their trade and business, together with the franchises and all the privileges, rights and property of said company.

Also said company's patent rights for the manufacture of brick in the District of Columbia and the county of Alexandria, Va., which patents and improvements were severally issued to John Caswell, April 16, 1861, numbered 32,044, and 32,047, to Grant W. Seely, May 12, 1863, numbered 38,607, to Lauren C. Woodruff and Corydon Karr, assignees, and John Steel, May 9, 1865, numbered 47,684, and to Lauren C. Woodruff, assignee of Benjamin D. Berry, February 9, 1869, numbered 58,639, and by the said company, C. S. FERGUSON BEACH, Trustees.
